

HOW TO USE THE ARTS IN WORSHIP

KEYNOTE SPEAKER RIK STOTT:
'CELEBRATING UNCERTAINTY: HOW ART LEADS US DEEPER INTO KNOWING GOD, OURSELVES AND
EACH OTHER.'

TRY YOUR HAND IN WORKSHOPS
EXPLORING: DRAMA; POETRY AND PSALMS; JOURNALLING WITH NEEDLECRAFT; ICONOGRAPHY AND IMAGERY; MAKING PICTURES; AND SINGING

IT'S FREE, BUT PLEASE DO BOOK AS LUNCH
IS INCLUDED

When: 26 January 2019, 10.00-3.30

Where: Wesley Hall, Crookes, Sheffield

More Info: Siggie Parratt-Halbert,
parratt-halberts@methodistchurch.org.uk

To book: Sian Henderson, admin@yorkshirenemethodist.org,
01904 786275

'Journalling With Stitches' Using free stitching as an approach to prayerfully reflect on moments and events in our lives with Ruth Sprague

'The Word(s)' Poetry in worship with Rev James Morley

'A Picture Paints a Thousand Praises' Worship through picture-making with Siggie Parratt-Halbert

'What a performance!' Making the most of drama, storytelling, or reading in worship with Rev Merry Evans

'Praying on a Visual Culture' Visuals have been used for centuries, from early wall paintings, to medieval stained glass and icons. In our current visual and digital culture, how might visuals help us to pray and worship? with Fidge Fidgin

'Singing Ourselves Open' Learn to sing a range of short songs in a variety of styles, to open you up, loosen your bodies and enable you to express what's inside – perfect for both personal and group worship with Alison Adam of the Iona Community

Save the Date: 'How to be Even More Welcoming' 6 July 2019

Learn with us, and from one another, about how we can be even more welcoming to people visiting our churches