

Books by Tom Stuckey (tom@christom.org.uk)

METHODISM UNFINISHED - Studies based on the reflections of ten Methodist 2019, £4.99 (plus postage and packing)

A series of articles responding to my book 'Singing the Lord's Song in a Strange Land' which appeared in the Methodist Recorder during January and February 2019 are available in this study booklet along with additional articles written by young people. There are also questions for discussion and prayers. This slim volume invites readers to engage in discussion about what it means to be God's people in 21st century Britain.

SINGING THE LORD'S SONG IN A STRANGE LAND - The Future of the Church in Britain: A Methodist Perspective.

(CIMP (160 pages) 2017, £9.99 (plus postage and packing)

The whole world is passing through a huge paradigm shift the likes of which have not been seen for generations. What is the Holy Spirit saying to the Churches in Britain and to the Methodist Church in particular? There are three parts to the book. Part 1 'VISION', part 2 'REALITY' & part 3 'PROPHECY'. This is now available in a KINDLE EDITION

BEYOND THE BOX - Mission Challenges from John's Gospel – 2005

(Inspire) (127 pages) £6.99

This is no simple reshuffling of the pack but rather a call for us to play a different game. We have to live beyond the box.' Here is an invitation to look at the contemporary Church through the eyes of John's Gospel and be transformed by the Living God. Suitable for study groups. This is now available in a KINDLE EDITION

INTO THE FAR COUNTRY – A Theology of Mission for an Age of Violence – 2003

(Epworth) (198 pages) £16.99
This book invites Christians from a variety of different backgrounds to think afresh about mission and the Great Commission. Because the centre of Christianity has moved from North America and Europe, spending time in the 'far country' with Third World theologians will illuminate and re-activate the missionary task of liberation and discipleship at home.

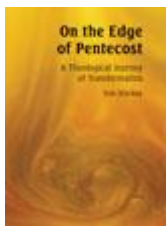

Suitable for theological students. This is now available in a KINDLE EDITION

THE WRATH OF GOD SATISFIED? – Atonement in an Age of Violence – 2012

(WIPF & STOCK) (139 pages) £12.00
In our violent world we should no longer dismiss the wrath of God and the disturbing metaphors of blood, debt, satisfaction and sacrifice. By linking atonement theories with contemporary events, the author argues that divine wrath is the shadow cast by the light of hope. This is now available in a KINDLE EDITION

Suitable for the thinking Christian.

ON THE EDGE OF PENTECOST - A theological journey of transformation – 2007,

(Inspire) (160 pages) £8.00
An invigorating blend of stimulating spiritual autobiography and informed theological reflection. The Church in Britain stands on the threshold of Pentecost. Will we heed the Spirit's message of judgement and renewal? A not-easy-to-put-down book. This is now available in a KINDLE EDITION

NEW BOOK out in JUNE (Amazon) COVID-19 – GOD'S WAKE UP CALL?

Most books available from Amazon